

CATHERINE GUSCHEWSKY (Appointed on 3/09)

Cathy Guschewsky grew up in Frankfort, Kentucky and attended the University of Kentucky for two years before transferring to South Dakota, where she met her husband, Chuck. After graduating, they were married in Kentucky and moved to Lander where Chuck joined his father in the car business in 1979.

Although Cathy's primary position has been assisting her husband with the car business, in January 2000 she started a career in Real Estate. She became a Broker and opened her own business, Fremont Realty, which she has now sold.

She is currently serving as the Chair of the Lander Regional Hospital Board, sits on the Wyoming National Bank Board, and the Wyoming Health Care Commission. She served on the Central Wyoming College Foundation for 11 years where she served as President and was the Executive Director for the One Shot Antelope Hunt

She currently works full time as the Corporate Administrator for Fremont Management Company.

Chuck and Cathy have two grown daughters, a son-in-law and one grandchild.
